

Dear <<First Name>>>,

Park Talk: Employees of the Month September and October

We are pleased to present the employees of the month for September and October. These outstanding individuals went above and beyond their regular responsibilities and demonstrated hard work and dedication to the peers who nominated them. September's valued employee is Shawn Huggard of Rancho Jurupa Park, and our esteemed employee-of-the-month for October is James Sauter of Hidden Valley.

September

Shawn Huggard merited his nomination by not only fulfilling his obligations at Rancho Jurupa Park, but also through collaboration with Rancho Jurupa Sports Park. Shawn was of tremendous help in restoring a malfunctioning irrigation system. His intelligence and ingenuity enabled him to create a filter system for the water pump, ensuring its proper operation and irrigation of all fields, trees, and plants. He was the 'go-to' person when problems occurred. Shawn was able to overcome obstacles while maintaining an upbeat and positive attitude. Shawn continues to demonstrate commitment and excellence by aiding Rancho Jurupa Sports Park staff in improving the sprinkler system maintenance of the water pump. He has proven his loyalty to RivCoParks' values through teamwork, outstanding service, stewardship, and accomplishments.

October

James (Jim) Sauter consistently leads by example, earning him the respect and admiration of his peers. Working conditions at Hidden Valley often exceed temperatures of 100 degrees, but he has yet to complain. Jim has provided tremendous support for completing the Hidden Valley Improvements for the roadway and well, one of the District Work Plan Tactics for this year. He holds RivCoParks values at their highest through his outstanding service, networking, stewardship, and accomplishments. His tasks are always completed well before deadline, and he is ready to take on the next project right away. Jim's teamwork, friendliness, and work ethic are truly indispensable to everyone around him.

When you see these exemplary employees around the District, take time to commend their work and appreciate their commitment to achieving the goals of RivCoParks' Values, Work Plan Tactics and beyond. Lead by example, as they do, and always strive to be the best in your role. Next time, your peers may nominate you!
